LEARN TO NAVIGATE

WHO: NWSA and the Mystic Whaler Schooner

WHAT: An all women's weekend learning adventure aboard the 110-foot replica coastal schooner Mystic Whaler offering Introduction to Navigation, taught by two experienced women sailors and navigation experts.

WHERE: Depart from and return to Baltimore Harbor, Maryland. Cruise the Chesapeake Bay.

WHEN: September 14-16, 2007

WHY: Combining fun and learning in a supportive environment is one of the most effective and popular means of educating women to be better sailors and navigators. Twenty women will have hands-on navigation instruction while enjoying the camaraderie of other women. The Chesapeake Bay is beautiful in the fall—crisp weather, fair breezes. However, the Mystic Whaler sails rain or shine.

FEE: $600 per person, includes berth, meals and instruction. Non-NWSA members please add $45.00. $400 non-refundable deposit is recommended. Full payment due by July 1, 2007. Berths are assigned based on date the deposit is received. There are no refunds.

SCHEDULE: Friday: Check bags in at schooner at 6 PM. Dine together at a local restaurant. Return to schooner* for orientation at 9 PM. Saturday: navigation instruction. All meals on board Mystic Whaler. Sunday: breakfast and light lunch. More instruction. Mystic Whaler returns to Baltimore harbor by mid-afternoon. *Cannot board before 7 PM.
