LEARN TO NAVIGATE

WHO: NWSA and the Mystic Whaler Schooner

WHAT: An all-women's weekend learning adventure aboard the 110-foot replica coastal schooner Mystic Whaler offering Introduction to Navigation, taught by an experienced woman sailor and navigation expert.

WHERE: Depart from and return to New London, Connecticut. Cruise the Long Island Sound.

WHEN: September 5-7, 2008

WHY: Learn to sail and navigate – or improve your skills – in a supportive, fun environment. Get hands-on navigation instruction, pick up some of the surprising history of America's schooners, and make new friends: the ship accommodates just 20 women. The Long Island Sound is beautiful in the fall—sunny, crisp weather, fair breezes. However, the Whaler sails rain or shine.

FEE: $600 per person, includes berth, meals and instruction. Non-NWSA members please add $45.00. Full payment due with registration by July 1, 2008. Berths are assigned based on date full payment is received. There are no refunds.

MORE DETAILS: We cannot board the boat until after 8:30 PM. Check-in is Friday at 8:30 PM. Arrangements will be made for a 7:00 PM group dinner Friday night. Participant will cover the cost of her Friday night dinner at a restaurant identified by the coordinator. Saturday includes three meals. Sunday includes breakfast and light lunch. The vessel arrives back in New London by mid-afternoon.
